

The Best of the Best

Here it is! Our second annual guide to the Masters of Makeover . . . Hair, beauty, body and soul. 2001! Destiny calls. When will you answer?

1 BOSTON Salon Capri The look—edgy and modern. The specialty—divine hair color and ‘new age’ cuts. Artistic director Nicholas Penna Jr. and his staff of expert stylists concentrate on modern, classic styles inspired by the ‘mod’ look of the 1970s. The result—funky, trendy, but wearable hair design—featuring solid, natural colors and razored out bobs with lots of shine and luster. Newton (617) 969-1970; Hyde Park (617) 361-3830; www.saloncapri.com

2 BOSTON Jesamondo Day Spa The “no attitude” hair care and color experts. This 4,000 square-foot salon with separate and private day spa has a well-deserved reputation for exceptional service enhanced by high technology. An award-winning staff of 38 includes aestheticians specially trained in state-of-the-art microdermabrasion, facial vacuum and cellulite treatments. “Our true focus is on quickly responding to our clients’ needs,” states owner/manager Jesse Gesimondo. Wellesley (781) 237-0655

3 CHICAGO Art & Science Even the most glorious color must be believable. A blend of artistic color selection and masterful techniques. Such is the trademark of this celebrated salon—creating color that is sometimes bold, often classic—customizing the look with urban contemporary cuts. To keep your “crowning glory” at home—excellent Modern Organic Products (MOP). On prestigious North Shore: Evanston (847) 864-4247; downtown location in Lincoln Park (312) 787-4247; www.artandsciencesalons.com

4 HOUSTON Arena Salon & Spa Edgy and provocative, this contemporary urban oasis brings a fresh approach to Houston hair. Owner/designer Jonathan Lyle believes “Beauty is individuality,” and Arena’s European-trained stylists set the professional standard in completely personalized service. The luxurious glass-enclosed spa and nail area features a Vichy shower room, custom spa cuisine and signature white calla lilies. Lunchtime spa appointments accommodate busy schedules. Sheer indulgence! (713) 218-7866; www.arenaspa.com

5 MIAMI BEACH Ego Trip Salon What this friendly urban-chic retreat lacks in size it makes up for in style. Located off fashionable Lincoln Road, its talented staff of haircutters, colorists and makeup artists know how to handle the toughest challenge. Whether it’s for everyday or a black tie affair—the look is natural, sophisticated, sexy. This team of experts excels at creative transformation combined with imagination! (305) 672-0871

6 NEW YORK CITY Warren-Tricomi Salon “Fly like an angel, whisper soft through the night . . . with this look you’ll always be in the right circles,” says Edward Tricomi. Along with partner Joel Warren, colorist and national spokesperson for Redken 5th Avenue NY, they create ultimate hair fashion for people of style. Hair by Kazunori Ueda for Warren-Tricomi Salon. (212) 262-8899; www.warrentricomi.com

7 PHOENIX Carsten Expectations become a reality. Carsten always delivers. With a well-developed international eye for fashion, Carsten and his innovative stylists provide impeccable cuts and coloring amidst high-tech surroundings, upbeat music, fashion videos, and spectacular natural light. Visit Carsten for hair expertise and international flair. Two flagship salons: Carsten Phoenix (602) 840-4240; Carsten on Mill/Tempe (480) 731-9199

8 PRINCETON Metropolis Spa & Salon “Styles are freer this season—even friendly to hair with natural texture,” says renowned stylist/owner Terry Cerf. Exceptional at Metropolis: cuts with great structure—tailored to the individual; expert haircolor to complete the picture. With a depth of talent and experience the Metropolis staff earns many accolades. Its award-winning day spa recently was named “best in central New Jersey” by regional press. (609) 683-8388

9 PROVIDENCE Jacqueline Philip Salon Makeovers for the soul spring from wellness and beauty. A winning combination here—with newly expanded opportunities for both! In this fine salon, highly regarded for its creative hair design and haircoloring, clients are clamoring for alternatives in the relaxation arts. Hot-stone therapy (rediscovered from centuries past) and reflexology bring holistic good health to this beauty emporium. Holiday gift certificates offer most inviting combinations! (401) 521-7773

10 SAN FRANCISCO 77 Maiden Lane Salon & Spa Known as the preeminent salon and day spa in San Francisco. Setting the standard for excellence in customer service and client attention for over 15 years. Relaxation is the goal for guests in this elegant environment while enjoying a wide variety of services including: hairstyling, color, face and body treatments, massage, makeup application, manicures and pedicures. Gift certificates available. Open seven days. (415) 391-7777; www.77maidenlane.citysearch.com

11 WASHINGTON, D.C. George Four Seasons Spa Salon This leading Washington salon is eager to propel fashion-conscious clientele into the color and style of the season! George’s international team is ready to give guests vibrant reds, earthy browns and sun-kissed blondes while adding flare to natural texture—so popular this fall and winter. The Four Seasons Spa provides a fabulous array of skin and bodycare, including Oxygenating Facials and Microdermabrasion. (202) 342-1942

